

2020 CANADIAN PAEDIATRIC REVIEW PROGRAM
Hamilton Convention Centre

Introduction to OSCE stations

TUESDAY, JANUARY 7, 2020

Session will be held in Webster C

1:00 PM – 4:30 PM

Time	Session	Faculty
1:00-1:15	Welcome from Program Chairs Completion of Pre-Program Evaluation	Anne Niec Bosco Paes
1:15-2:15	Theory: Preparing for an OSCE station using a step-by-step approach	Jean-François Lemay Anne Niec Bosco Paes
2:15-2:40	Reflection from a past IMG	Madhavi Moharir
2:40-2:55	Break
2:55-4:20	Practical cases	Jean-François Lemay Anne Niec Bosco Paes
4:20-4:30	Closing Remarks from Program Chairs Completion of Post-Program Evaluation	Anne Niec Bosco Paes

Course Description

Objective Structured Clinical Exam (OSCE) is a unique doctor-patient encounter in which the candidate's clinical knowledge, verbal and non-verbal communication skills are assessed.

We are pleased to announce that OSCE tips and style will be reviewed in this session to help IMGs prepare for their OSCE exam. Participants will view two videos of an OSCE station done in the Royal College format and will have an opportunity to discuss the resident's performance.